#22 Please provide any additional comments related to your business viability and your challenges as a business owner.

Answered: 8

Skipped: 25

- Short of my frustration keeping up with daily changes on my computer, phone and tv, my business is thriving and I love it here.
- We sell books, which is how we are able to fund our work as a non-profit, but everything is so focused on the idea that a business must have employees. We're a volunteer-run organization, but have many of the same challenges, yet because we're a non-profit we're not given access to the same resources - when arguably we need them more.
- Making our sanctuary accessible when grants from Rideau Lakes township are not extended to our street. We could offer an incredible opportunity for classrooms and retirement homes and other community members to experience an educational sanctuary tour, but are limited by our non-profit budget.
- This business just started in 2020, so we are learning as we go...it's gotten better each year for expenses and hopefully we get to a place where we can pay down our business loans significantly. Overhead and start-up costs were huge and now we are maintaining equipment and not thinking too big for our business future just yet. Making ends meet in this climate is a goal in itself.
- Cell phone coverage in Elgin is basically non-existent. This impacts the ability to run the business properly and also impacts the attraction of customers since they can't use mobile navigation or search online while in this area.
- Need more abattoirs, especially poultry. Need to have more flexible housing arrangements to allow tiny houses, bunkies, etc. for potential farm partners.
- Semi-retired, busy with volunteer work when not working for pay. Restricted by health issues. Hard to find well-paying part-time gigs in my field (editing, mainly medical, but experienced in many genres).
- Main challenge is balancing time/cost of apprenticing/training employees.
- Back to basics
