- I would hire a cleaner to help if I could afford it.
- I hire part time employees. Very difficult to obtain reliable, responsible staff.

#11 What should the region's focus be to address workforce shortages?

Answered: 10 Skipped: 3

Affordable housing

- Affordable housing in smaller communities, no place is affordable for casual workers.
- Lower income housing and lifestyle affordability.
- Affordable housing and/or public transportation.
- Living costs Real estate prices. Ebb and flow of the seasonality of the industry.
- Affordable housing to bring new employees to the local work force.
- Affordable housing to allow labourers to live in the area they work.
- Affordable housing, transportation.
- Affordable housing.

Other

- Better financial support and incentives for training and enticing new young workers.
- Start in schools.

#12 What are the 3 top areas of support that would be most helpful to your business right now?

Answered: 11

Skipped: 2

Tourism

- Targeted tourism campaigns during the off season that is not centred around the Rideau Canal. The area around the Rideau lakes has much more to offer than boating. Year-round outdoor activities, music, food & beverage, arts, photography.
- Increased tourism during shoulder seasons, support for small Ontario producers, more help with internet infrastructure.
- General tourist attraction of the area. Living costs for all, especially for staff and attracting staff.

Digital Support

- Social media/website development.
- Identifying and accessing additional online/social media advertising opportunities for our outdoor market.

Other

- Infrastructure repairs.
- Lower taxes.
- Reduction in corporate taxes.
- Wage subsidies for training.
- Getting more young people in the trades.
- Less red tape.
- People get over fear of COVID.
- More hireable employees.
- Further promotional funding for organizations such as "What's On Westport" that assist local businesses with event organization without need to apply for onerous forms.
- New event support through funding. Increased efforts in the off-season direct features and collective efforts to spotlight our individual businesses.

#13 What are your expectations for 2023?

Answered: 12

Skipped: 1

Positive

- Good.
- I hope for a much better winter and spring.
- Better but still tentative with COVID. We are looking to have more success with a growing economy in this area. Better room amenities and renovations to be a better overall draw for our business.
- 5% increase in receipts.
- A continued return to pre-COVID numbers. Unfortunately, there is still some hesitancy and trepidation in terms of travel with increased costs and health concerns for example.
- We still expect vendor participation and public engagement to continue to increase.

#13 continued...

Neutral

- Zero growth, hope to maintain 2022 numbers.
- Steady, but no growth.
- To continue as normal working to full capacity but not able to expand.

Negative

- Recession.
- I would like to say that the business will grow in 2023 but without adequate amount of staff, I see 2023 to have the same struggles as this year.

Other

- We are re-evaluating our business plan.

- The off season is our biggest challenge. Increasing support and collective attractions to bring customers year-round is our greatest need.
- Reports of doom in mainstream media are damaging the industry.

#15 continued...

- This far end of the region gets very little attention other than the casual mention of the view from Spy Rock. The music scene is phenomenal with local talent and talent from far and wide. The food and beverage scene is competitive with other regions with the benefit of everything being in walking distance. There are scenic drives in 5 different directions from Westport. You can hike the Rideau trail from the village to the top of Foley Mountain, along the ridge with spectacular views and down the hill out towards the Winery. I would like to see the county review this gap in your tourism marketing.
- The expectation of patrons is that the service level will remain the same without large increases in pricing. Costs, however are rising at a rate where maintaining a seasonal business becomes unfeasible.

#16 If you would like to speak to someone regarding support available to business, or if you answered yes to question #8 or #14, please provide your contact information.
